memories of a school year.*

Remember a solitary achievement, an experience well-guided, a successful partnership, laughing with friends. No better reflection of a year remains than this.

The Class of 1980 Arrives

On August 31, 1976, approximately 250 students assembled in Fairview's auditorium to attend Freshman Orientation, sponsored by Student Government. President Alison Willis said, "The new students were very cooperative and responsive to the program." Assistant Principal Mr. Denney, responded, "Orientation assists the new students in adjusting to their surroundings." Many of the students later became involved in athletics; others excelled in academics. Aside from their achievements, however, each student added to the spirit and pride which make up Fairview High School.

Bulldogs Have an Even Record

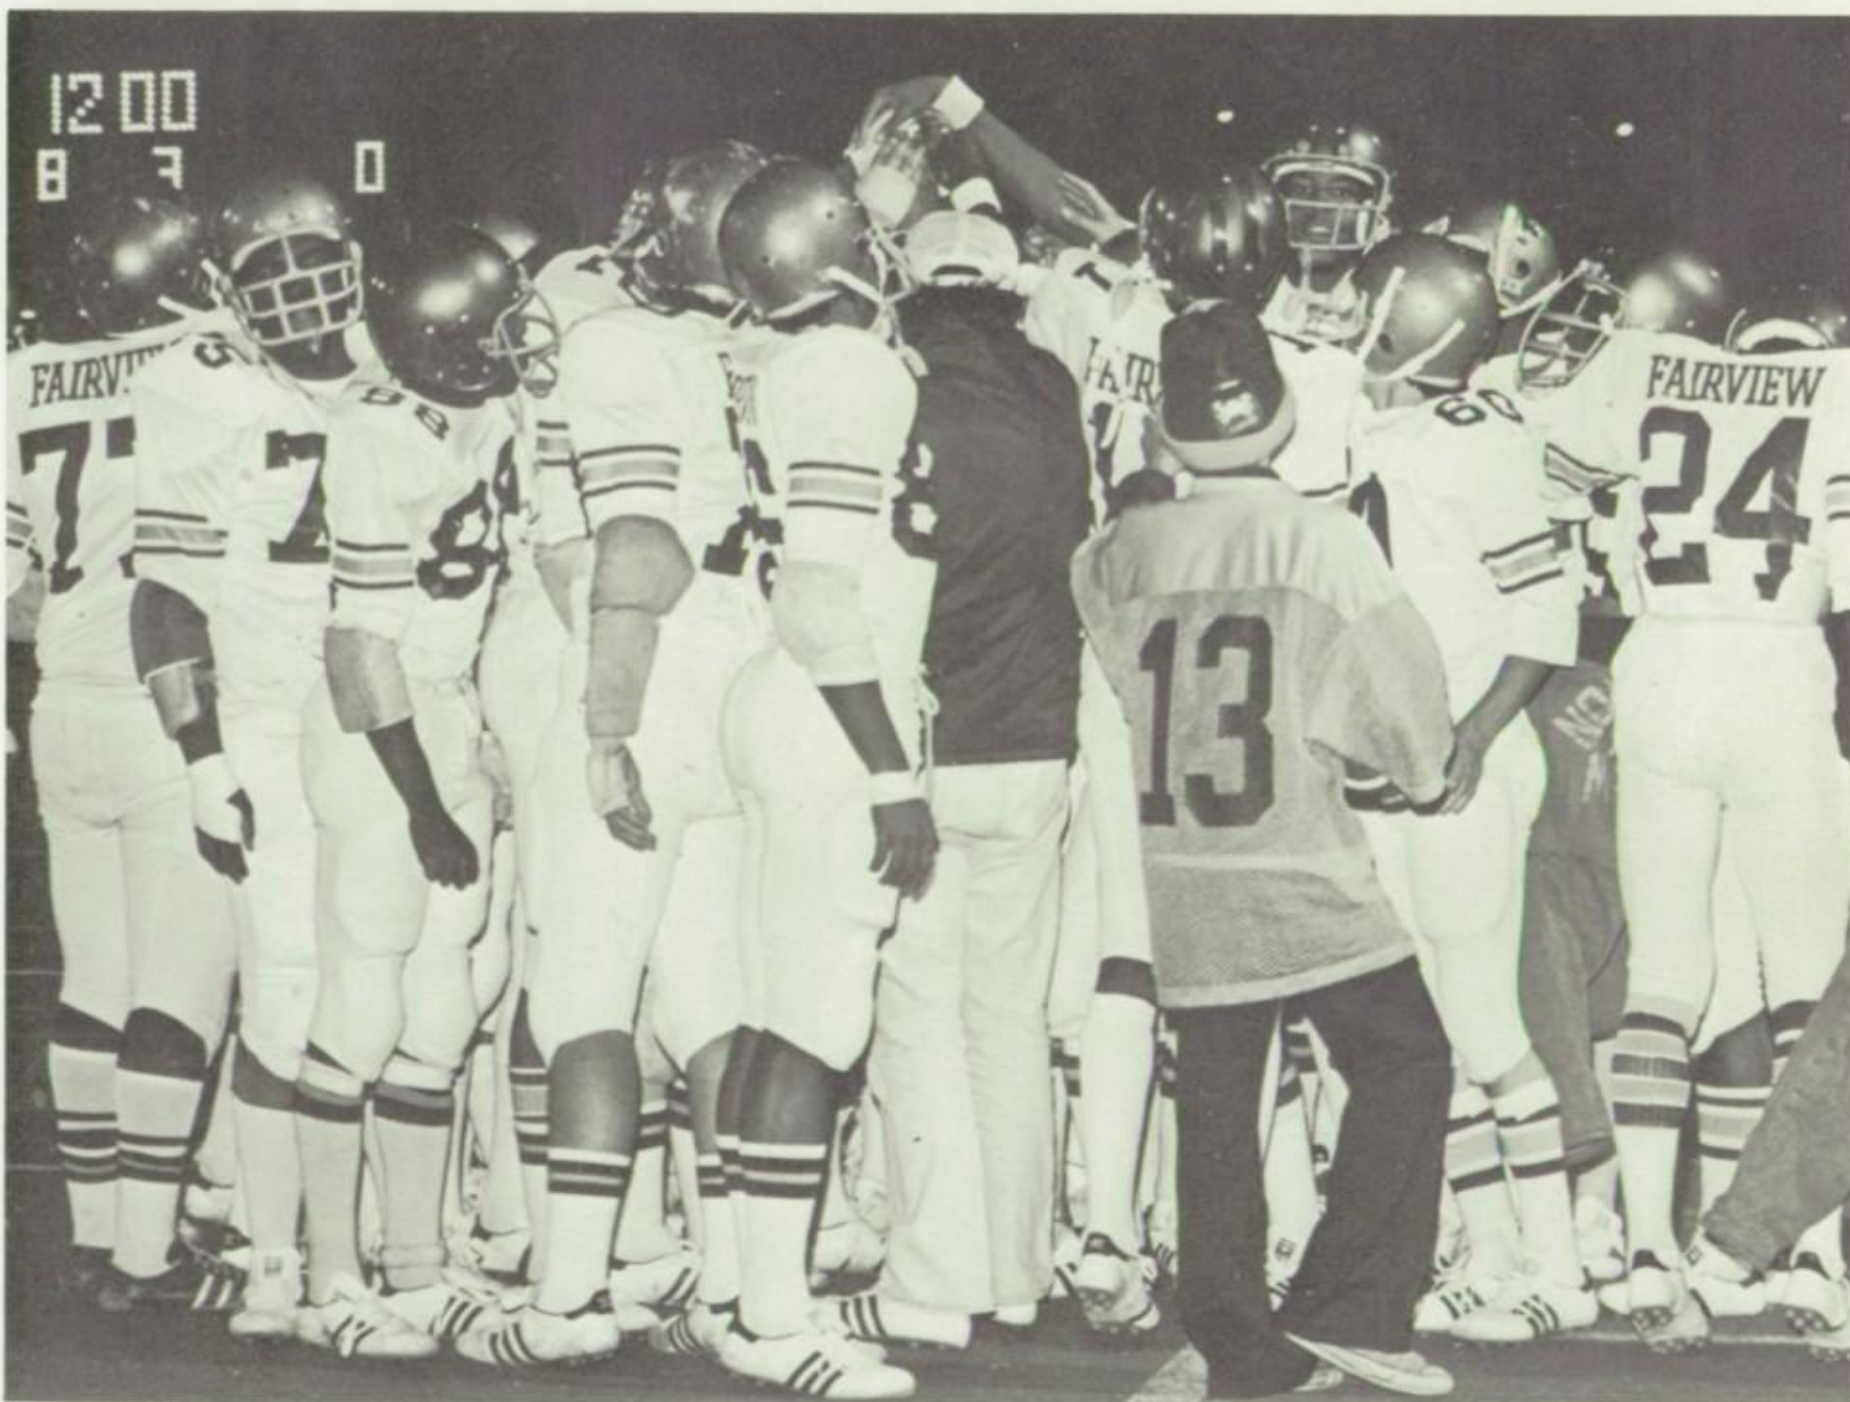

The 76-77 Bulldogs gave every indication of a winning season, after a grueling summer workout, by winning their first game at Oakwood. Plagued by injuries the Bulldogs went on to complete an even season with a 5-5 record.

The Reserve Bulldogs displayed amazing potential in their two wins during an eight game season. Coach Potenza feels he will be able to send several players to the Varsity ranks next season.

Apathy and the small size of the players hurt the Frosh team this year. The turnout at tryouts was very small and few players who made the team were very big. None the less, the frosh played well together and finished with high hopes for years to come.

The Bulldogs completed a sound season with numerous individuals playing the kind of football many colleges desire. Five Bulldogs received full scholarships to various colleges and universities throughout the Midwest and South. Blair Brown, Don Grimes and Lonnie Harris made first team All City, Nelson Moore and Mike Scarpelli were voted onto the second team and three more seniors received Honorable Mentions (Craig Bacher, Norman Shearer, Allan Stephens). The Bulldogs also were aided by the play of Junior Kenley Starks who came off the bench when Quarterback Steve Edwards was injured early in the season. Starks was named Most Improved player of the 76-77 season.

Was the team's five wins and five losses reflective of the talent of the 76-77 Bulldogs? Not according to Coach Winters, who pointed out that three of the five losses had one touchdown or less difference.

Cheerleaders Boost Spirit

The performance of the cheerleaders during football season reflected the hours of practice by the squads. Although these hours of work were difficult and tiring, they were also filled with enjoyment.

After practicing throughout the summer, the Varsity and Reserve Squads were well prepared for the games which lay ahead. Led by Captain Sara Alford and Co-Capt. Gloria Roffe, the Varsity cheered the team on through rain, snow, and bitter cold. The dedication of each individual and the cooperation and friendship shared by each girl resulted in the squads being considered the best in the area.

The 1976-1977 Varsity Cheerleaders are:

S. Alford (Capt.), G. Roffe (Co-Capt.), S. Sells, J. Romeiser, A. Willis, S. Hines, P. Chaney, A. Gardner, M. Regulinski, E. Knapp, and K. Wilson.

The Fairview High School Band and Scotchettes took on a new name and a new look this year, and it all started at Band Camp. The Band wasted no time and that night the Band and Scotchettes were introduced to "Everything You Always Wanted to Know About Marching Band, But

Were Afraid to Ask!''.

After five days of 6:00 a.m. wake-up calls, sunshine, sunburn, rain, ankle deep mud, rehearsal and more drill and more rehearsal - the Band and Scotchettes were ready to start the 1976-1977 marching season in style.

Band Parents Recognize Seniors

After a long and anticipated wait the Senior Band and Scotchette members got to wear the new uniforms they waited 22 years for. To celebrate their debut - a star spangled spectacular show was planned for the Chaminade-Julienne football game. This was the Band's way of extending their sincere thanks to all the parents, students and everyone who supported all the fund raising projects that made the dream a reality.

Spirit Week, a tradition at Fairview for many years, was designed to prepare students for the biggest game of the season and give them an opportunity to show school spirit. At Fairview there has always been a favorable amount of student participation during Spirit Week. On the first night of Spirit Week, each class got together and decorated their assigned halls. Decoration night was full of hanging streamers, painting murals, blowing up of balloons and finally cleaning it all up. The Spirit Week judges were administration and faculty members who took time to judge the spirit and participation of each class.

The Roth game, rather than the traditional Meadowdale game, was chosen for spirit week. Unlike previous years, Spirit Week was celebrated separately from Homecoming. The entire week was one of combined efforts of both faculty and students, working toward one common goal. All of the classes displayed tremendous school spirit, but the most spectacular of all were the seniors. Their creativity, together with the total input of the whole class, added up to one sensational performance.

Cross Country Teams Do Well in City League

"The Girls Cross Country Team headed by Senior Denise Thompson was excellent," said Coach Borchers. The girls won every meet, placing second only to Wayne.

The Boy's Team showed tremendous potential for the 1977-1978 Cross-Country season. Mark Widdowson, who was consistently the third or fourth best runner in the city, led the team with strong endurance. "Overall," said the Coach, "both teams worked well together and practiced long hours. With the experience of this year's boy's team, I'm confident that they like the girls will uphold the pride of Fairview in the coming season."

Golf and Girls' Tennis Become Fall Sports

Coach Brown says "The Golf team did not do as well as they could have done this year, but if the returning five get their game together they could be next year's City Champs." This year's team won 3 and lost 7.

The girl's tennis team also showed great potential with a 3 and 5 record for this year. The whole team is returning next year with a great chance for being City Champs.

Tri-Delphi Presents 1976 Homecoming

The highlight of the fall season was reflected in the 1976 Homecoming Dance. The dance sponsored by the Tri-Delphi organization drew an enthusiastic crowd. The theme of the evening was "Harvest of the World," which was indicated by the backdrop of the harvest moon and traditional fall foliage. Seniors Susie Sells and Edward Knapp reigned as Homecoming King and Queen.

The 1976-77 Volleyball team showed team spirit and gained individual recognition and respect from their opponents. Coach Conway feels the team acquired "valuable experience" and showed "promise for improvement" in the future. Some outstanding players were Nancy Ponichtera, considered to be the best server on the team; Nina Farrell, for excellent team spirit; Donna Jeter, a highly respected serve returner; and Laurie Moosbrugger, also a superb server. Also commended by Coach Conway for their volleying powers: Debbie Tuckerman, Teresa Condron, Shirley Foster and Lori Newman. Belinda Rutledge and Gertude Motly played the not so glamorous position of backman, but with dedication and spirit. Not to be forgotten for their assists and spirit were Belinds Farren, Charlotte Adams, Diane Crawford and manager Irene Alexander.

Fairview Presents "Charlie Brown"

The Fairview Drama Department started the year with a musical adaptation of Charles M. Schultz's "Charlie Brown." This was a combined effort of the Music and Drama Departments.

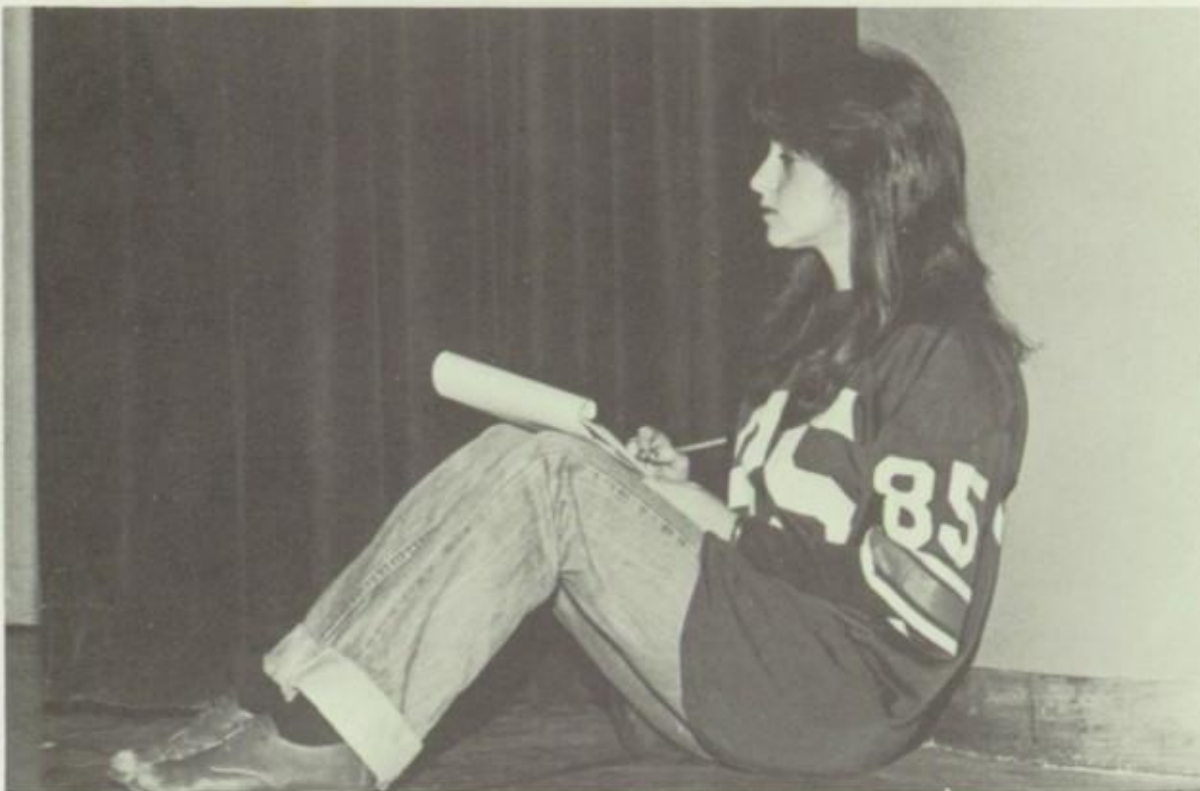

The director, Mr. William Smith said, "It was a delightful experience dealing with the various talents of the school. My cast and the musicians were beautiful."

Miss Stall, the Instrumental Director, said, "I enjoyed working with the pit and the vocalists. It was really a pleasure to see the kids get so involved."

After many weeks of preparation, the cast presented the musical for elementary school children of the community. The response from both children and adults was one of delight with both music and acting.

Student Director Charlotte Frydman was assisted by an excellent production staff, headed by John Booher, John Godshall, and Sonny Saeks.

Seniors Provide Team Leadership

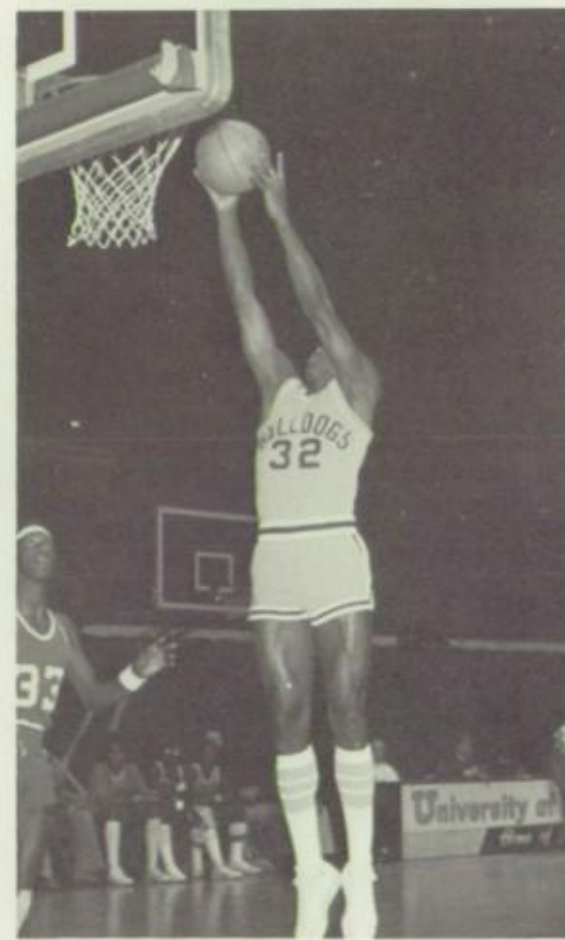

It was a hard season for this year's basketball team after being city champs last year. To say the least a lot was expected from the team, but they didn't disappoint their fans. All members did their best at every game which made for some exciting moments. The highlight of the season was Fairview's brutal beating of the strong Belmont team that had stopped last year's Bulldogs in the tournament. A strong group of seniors led the Bulldogs in rousing spirit.

Girl's Basketball Team Finishes an Excellent Season

This year the 1976-1977 Girl's Basketball team made an all out effort to win every game. They were supported at every basketball game by the Pep Club and student body. With the coaching of Miss Arnette Jackson and the support of everyone, the girls proved to excel themselves, and giving every effort they had to pull through till the last second of the game. Although any team plays better when supported by an enthusiastic student body. The pep club worked to provide this necessary support by sponsoring two dances and developing an active interest in the school's athletic activities. Returning players from the previous year were: Debbie Tuckerman, Shirley Foster, Barbara Brooks, Debra Hall among others which displayed excellence during this season.

Academic and Classroom Activities Are Interrupted

Between January and February, no one really knew if school was going to be opened from one day to the next because of the energy crisis and heavy snows. All schools were finally closed for the last week in January and first in February and re-opened on February 16. This was a bad time to close school because classes were interrupted and the work to be done had to be dropped until school re-opened. Despite all this the faculty and students came back and gave it their best. An optimistic outlook for the future prevailed.

Wrestlers Place in City and District

The 1976-77 wrestling squad had a great year with a 6-1 city record and a 3rd place finish in the City Tournament. "This was the best that Fairview's team has ever done in the City Tournament," said Coach Smith. Everyone was quite pleased with Blair Brown's performance this year. He was 1st in the Sectionals and Districts and was the first Fairview Wrestler to ever go to the State.

Other Senior wrestlers were Kenny Wilson, Tony Thomas, Mike Atwood, Rodney Furguson, and Walter Triplet.

Fairview Presents First Dinner Theater

Fairview Drama Department presented an evening performance of two-one acts with dinner. This unique experience was held in Cola Cottage for family and friends. Nancy Ponichtera and Mark Goldfarb entertain the audience with the play, "Loose Ends." "The Game" was also presented as department officers served as host and waiters.

Get-Togethers*

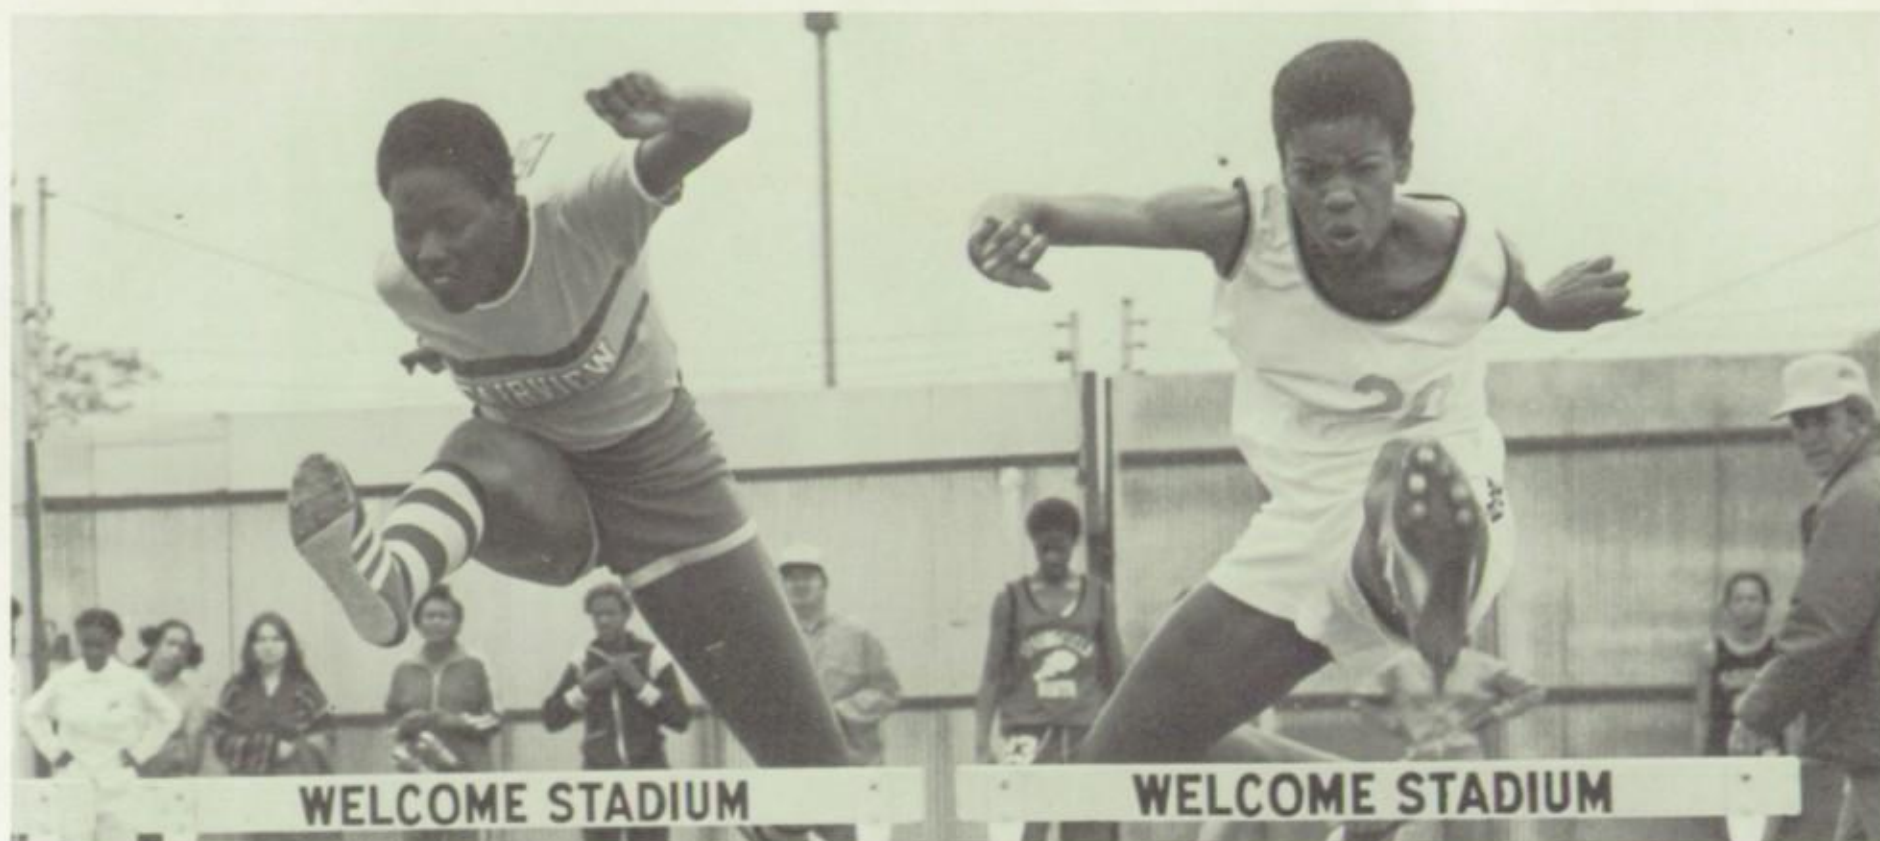

The Junior Class sponsored numerous activities for the benefit of the student body. One such activity was the get-together with classes. Senior officer Steve Edwards rolling the records as students enjoyed the informal opportunity to be with friends.

Men's and Women's Track Teams Bring Home Victories

The 1977 Varsity Track season opened with spring rains and cold weather. Despite the conditions, both the men's and women's teams ran well throughout the year. Both teams were comprised of young runners and the year was one of experience, as well as success.

Women's track competed in numerous meets in the area. The highlight of the season was Denise Thompson qualifying for the district tournament in the long jump.

Men's track had an unprecedented entry for Fairview of these events in the State Tournament.

The 880 yard relay team of Vaughn George, Floyd Horton, Kenley Starks and Lonnie Harris set a new school record of 1:29.6. Other state qualifiers were Lonnie Harris in the 100 yard dash and Kenley Starks in the long jump.

Imperial House Is the Scene of Senior Dinner Dance

The senior class provided an entertaining evening honoring the graduates. The dinner dance was held at Imperial House South with the 1977 class presenting retired principal Floyd G. Norman with a present. The final social event for the graduates was an exciting affair for all that attended.

Band Presents Zampogna II

On May 6, 1977 the Fairview Band and Scotchettes presented an entertaining evening of song and dance. The program consisted of light musical numbers including "Fifth of Beethoven" and a zany clown act. Scotchettes performed a twirling umbrellas routine to "Laughter in the Rain." The band and Scotchettes revived the traditional winding of the Maypole as the band played "Getting Happy."

The evening was an impressive ending to a productive year.

Softball Team Gains Recognition for Women

The Girls Softball Team, coached by Mr. Borchers, had a good season with a 6-5 win.

Having only two seniors on the team, the young team will prove to grow strong and powerful by next year.

Outstanding players were Debbie Tuckerman, Armeater Boatwright, Lynette Fields, Lillie Dixon, and Tina Ross.

Averaging 23 hits per game, Belmont was the only difficult contender.

Despite the many injuries, a broken nose and leg of Toni Pigford, and Jenny Pratt's leg-knee accident, the girls performed to their utmost capacity.

Seniors Lead Team in Winning Season

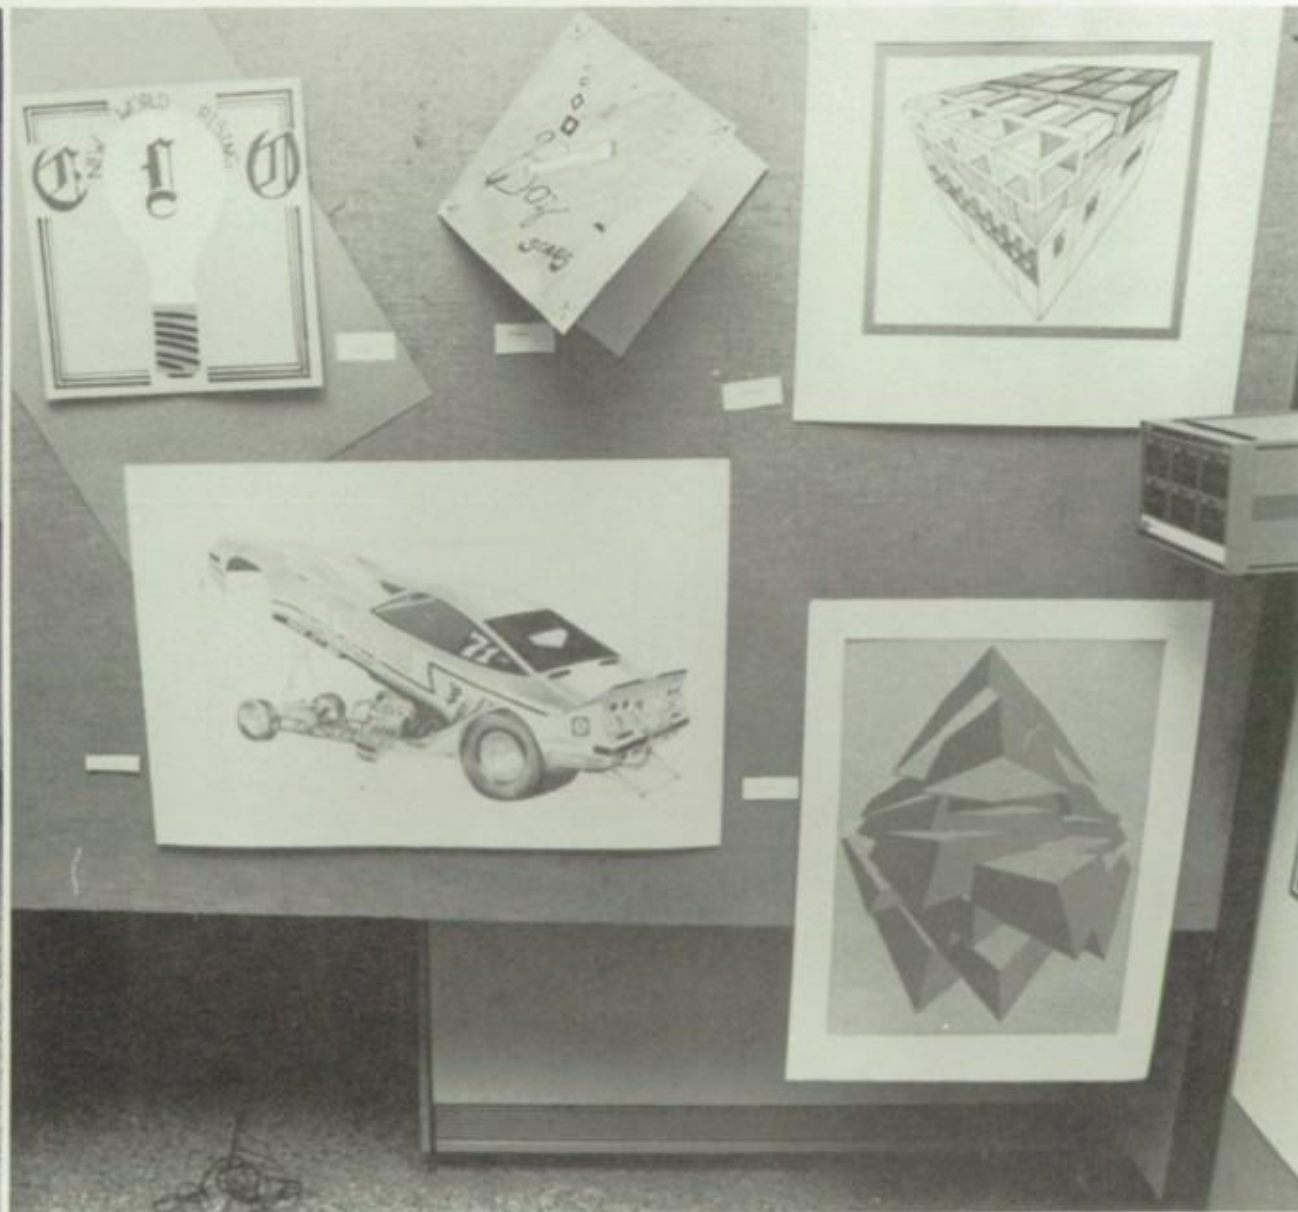

Captain and first singles player, Ed Knapp, captured second place in the city and led his team to a 7-2 city record, tying Stivers-Patterson for second place. Captain Knapp lost only one match in city play and with the help of MVP Gary Rosenbaum (8-1) and senior Rick Mayerson,

The first doubles team of Aaron Rodgers and Mark Mattis (7-2 in city play) and the second doubles team of Ealy Mays and Gary Pavlosky also played an integral part in securing a winning season.

Student Work Displayed at Annual Art Show

The annual art show provided an outstanding display of student art work. One main attraction was artist Roger Crawford's portrait of retired principal, Floyd G. Norman. The entire show reflected the diversity and abilities of the excellent art program at Fairview High School.

Juniors Present Past-Time Paradise

The Class of 1978 presented "Past Time Paradise" at the Dayton Convention Center on May 27. This year's prom was attended by more people than any prom in the past five years, and everyone who attended agreed it was the best ever.

All who attended the prom received as a favor a replica of the 1977 class ring. Another highlight was the band, Topaze, whose music appealed to all tastes.

Baccalaureate Held at Temple Israel

The 1977 Baccalaureate was held at Temple Israel on May 29 at 2:30. The Baccalaureate service was unique in that all the speakers were fathers of graduating seniors. Those involved were Rev. Ivory James Jr. of the Collegiate Hts. Church of Christ, Rev. H. Hodges of the Harriss Memorial Church, and Rabbi P. Irving Bloom of Temple Israel. The Concert Choir offered inspiration to the Senior Class through their Anthem and Choral Benediction. In her solo, Sheila James sang the Lord's Prayer. Rabbi Bloom's sermon offered a message that was significant to all graduates, stressing faith in one's self, one's country, and one's God.

Seniors Await Graduation

As graduation approached the Class of '77 realized that only through practice could they be able to make their commencement day be a success.

With the guidance of their advisors, Ms. Carlton and Mrs. Davis, the seniors moved closer and closer to the long awaited graduation day.

Ms. Carlton distributed the tickets for graduation to each senior.

Felicia Cassels rehearsed her speech for commencement night.

After much long practicing, the seniors are allowed some free time.

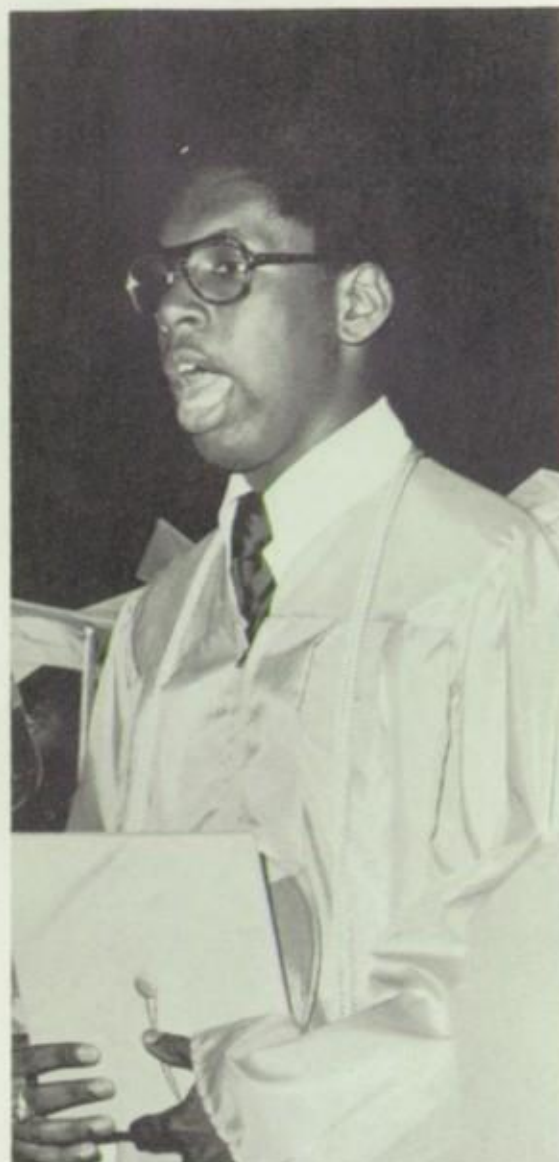

NCR Scene of June 1 Graduation

In preparation for the processional, seniors fix their caps and gowns before entering the auditorium.

Together for the last time, they marched forward to take their appointed seats. On the evening of June 1, 1977 the graduating class of Fairview High School assembled for the most important moment of their high school careers.

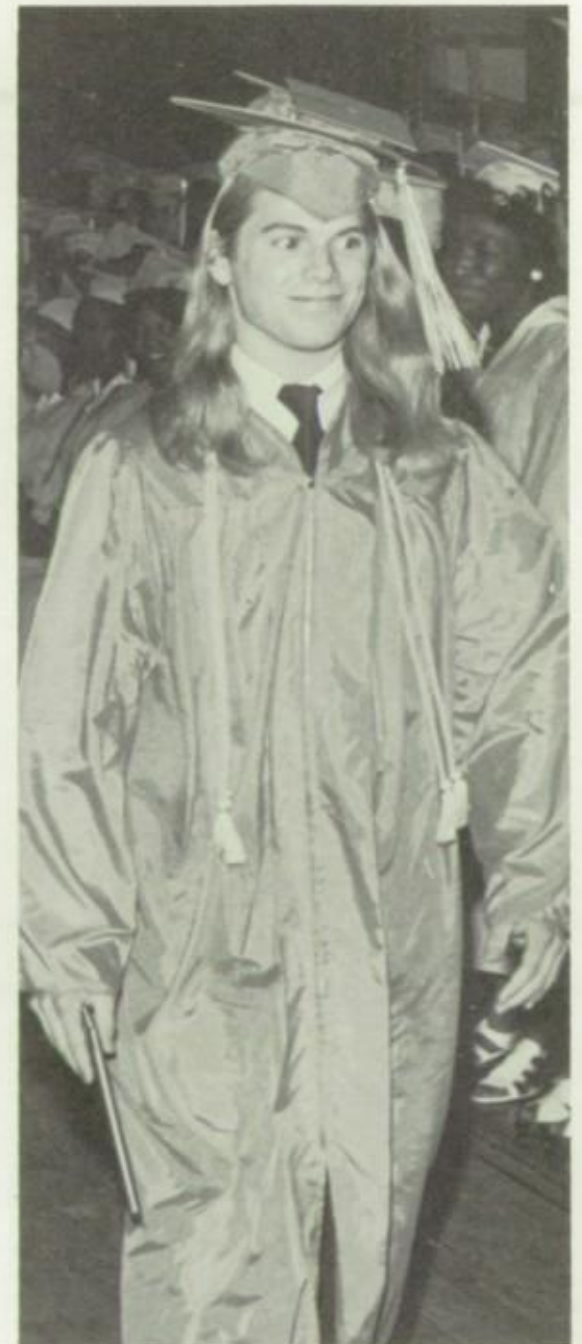

The joy of graduation could only be expressed by the jubilant smiles and kisses of appreciation shown by several students upon receiving their diplomas.

Mr. Ben Montgomery and Mr. Louis Galiardi, assistant principals, awarded diplomas.

Counter-clockwise: Mr. Galiardi gives a diploma to an appreciative student. Mr. Montgomery receives a kiss from Felicia Casels. Valedictorian Margaret Reinsch receives diploma along with a trophy. Peter Farrow receives diploma.

With serious but open minds, the graduates listen to each of the speakers, who dealt with reflections, inspiration and challenge.

The speakers were Frelicia Cassels, Susan Kolze, Sara Alford, Kenneth Fresh and Rosalind Vera. The soloists were Mary Eschbach, Wade Hunt, and Peter Torvik. Each senior patiently awaited his name and solemnly rose to receive his diploma, each realized it represented twelve years of effort, struggle, good times, bad times, tears and laughter in school.

Jan Fisher's happy face reflected the feelings of the graduates. The tassel was turned and diplomas accepted.

Administrative Team Sets Academic Standards

Mrs. Jean D. Booker has been acting principal of Fairview High School since February of 1976. While serving as an assistant principal for eight years, Mrs. Booker worked with the faculty in improving the curriculum, attendance procedures, and the activities program.

As principal, Mrs. Booker provides the leadership in all areas of the life in Fairview High School. Mrs. Booker believes this past year has demonstrated "a basically overall good relationship between faculty, administration and students."

Mr. Benjamin W. Montgomery

Mr. Lou Galiardi

Mr. Robert Denney

Mr. Benjamin Montgomery, Mr. Lou Galiardi, and Mr. Robert Denney served as assistant principals during the 1976-1977 school year. Aside from acting as grade level administrators the assistant principals are individually responsible for various phases of Fairview's programs, such as activities, counseling, scheduling, and attendance. Having over twenty years experience as administrators, these three men make up a strong team.
